Southaven - LGI Homes Subdivision

Southaven - LGI Homes Subdivision

Southaven, a residential community by LGI Homes located in Hutchins, Texas, offers a collection of 122 single-family homes. The development began construction in 2022, with homes designed to meet the needs of a modern family. The community features a variety of floor plans ranging from 1,229 to 2,616 square feet, with options for 3 to 5 bedrooms and 2 to 3 bathrooms. The homes in Southaven are designed with open-concept layouts, providing ample living space and modern amenities. The neighborhood also boasts several community amenities, such as a playground, dog park, splash pad, and picnic areas, making it an attractive place for families. Southaven's prime location just south of downtown Dallas ensures that residents are close to key shopping, dining, and entertainment options, as well as major employment centers.

Georgia Pacific

Georgia Pacific

A leading manufacturer in the pulp and paper industry, contributing to the local economy and employment. Georgia-Pacific's facility in Hutchins, Texas, located at 1100 E Cleveland St, is a significant employer in the area, with approximately 1,300 employees. While specific details about the facility's size are not publicly disclosed, for context, Georgia-Pacific's recently opened gypsum wallboard production facility in Sweetwater, Texas, spans over 700,000 square feet. This suggests that the Hutchins facility is also a substantial operation within the company's network.

Fed Ex

Fed Ex

FedEx Ground maintains a substantial distribution hub in Hutchins, Texas, located at 1101 E Cleveland St. This facility encompasses over 720,000 square feet and stands as one of the largest and busiest of its kind. It employs approximately 1,300 individuals, significantly contributing to the local economy.

Dallas Market Overview

The Dallas/Fort Worth (DFW) area is a vibrant region spanning 12 counties, including the cities of Dallas, Fort Worth, and over 150 other municipalities. As the largest urban agglomeration in Texas and the fourth largest in the United States, DFW covers an area of 9,286 square miles and is home to approximately 7.1 million residents. The region is globally connected through the nation's fourth-busiest airport, which offers 55 international flights. North Texas' GDP is estimated at $486 billion, and if DFW were a standalone state, it would rank as the 9th largest in the U.S. and the 23rd largest country in the world.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
